5 tips for effective remote working: tip # 5

---

Who am I?

1. Pick a person who really helped you this week.
2. Team can only ask questions on how it improved their week and reply with Yes or No.
3. Three minutes maximum per subject.
4. Bonus: they learn more about their week, competences, struggles and achievements.

My most ridiculous moment!

1. Create two teams.
2. One by one, each team member shares their most ridiculous or embarrassing moment of the week (concerning work, video calls, ...) in one minute or less.
3. Vote as a team for the best laugh. The team with most laughs wins!
4. Bonus: they learn how to laugh positively about situations that could be embarrassing.

Two truths and a lie...

1. Each person shares three things about themselves in one minute or less. Two should be true and one a lie.
2. The rest of the team must come to agreement which one is the lie, quickly.
3. They get to know more about each other.
4. Bonus: observe how the team comes to make its decision. Was it by majority vote, consensus, authoritarian? What method did they use, if any?
